

Contactless Premium Finance with AFCO's EPF Plus

In times of social distancing, being able to complete premium finance transactions electronically is the responsible and safest choice for you and your insureds.

During these unprecedented times, we are all searching for ways to transact business safely.

AFCO's EPF Plus solution for Electronic Premium Finance allows your agency and insureds to complete the entire premium finance process remotely, efficiently and securely.

Through EPF Plus, AFCO will collect the down payment and dually executed agreement digitally on your behalf. Upon acceptance of the agreement, AFCO will fund the loan proceeds in accordance with your agency's current funding procedures.

If you would like to put the EPF Plus solution to work for your agency, please contact AFCO today:
